

st.i.p. Finance - The study and practice program for Business Economics students

In December 2007, Lufthansa started the study and practice program “study & intensive practice Finance”. Selected business economics students from the University of Cologne, University of Frankfurt, University of Mannheim as well as the Frankfurt School of Finance & Management are given the opportunity to take part in a study-concurrent program.

Within the framework of the program, over a period of approximately 40 weeks, you will take part in practical assignments in typical finance and accounting departments. Preparatory training, lectures, guided tours, and a business simulation game round up the program, which is completed by a bachelor thesis.

Facts

- Lufthansa will cover the internal training fees and the travel costs for transportation to your assignment locations and lectures.
- During your internship assignment periods you will receive a remuneration of 650 € gross per month in month 1-3 and, 750 € gross per month eff. 4th month
- The tuition fees are not covered by Lufthansa

Exemplary schedule:

1 st semester	1 week	Training/business simulation game/lectures/guided tours
End of 1 st semester	7 weeks	Internship administrative accounting
End of 2 nd semester	10 weeks	Internship administrative accounting
End of 3 rd semester	7 weeks	Internship balancing/controlling/ internal accounting
End of 4 th semester	10 weeks	Internship balancing/controlling/ internal accounting
5 th semester	7 weeks	Internship abroad or domestic assignment in the areas of consolidated finances/taxes and/or balancing/controlling/internal accounting/ commercial leadership

Requirements

- General qualification for university entrance
- (Willingness to gain) Enrollment at the Cologne University, Frankfurt University, Mannheim University or the Frankfurt School of Finance & Management
- Willing to select courses from the areas of finance and accounting during your main study period

Program begin

December 2012

Application period

You can apply approx. one year ahead of program begin in December.

Please apply online at www.Be-Lufthansa.com.

For your online application you will need the data from your CV and your school grades from the last four semesters.